In the event of NRE being forced to cancel an expedition for reasons of security or personal safety (eg. civil unrest, seismic activity ,etc.), the amount paid would be transferable to another Expedition or would be refunded, minus a reasonable amount for administration costs and cancellation fees charged by airline and accommodation companies not controlled by NRE. Administration fees would be calculated on a case by case basis.

While acknowledging the travel warnings posted by respective Foreign Office departments NRE do not accept cancellation due to these warnings in isolation, we take into consideration information from numerous sources including reports from our local offices in the respective country and act accordingly.

In the event of NRE cancelling an expedition we would work with all affected members to try to provide an alternative venue or the expedition fee will be refunded minus associated costs out of NRE's control.

NO ROADS EXPEDITIONS LIABILITY RELEASE

I have been advised by 'No Roads Expeditions' (NRE) of the following matters in relation to my upcoming expedition with NRE. I have been advised that, snorkelling/swimming, trekking, climbing and especially mountaineering are inherently dangerous activities. I may be killed, injured, incapacitated and experience pain, illness and suffering. I may experience loss, damage or theft of my property. Any of the above may not be NRE's fault or the fault of anyone else. These incidents may be caused by others in my party, employees or directors of NRE, their subcontractors, my guide or wildlife, environmental factors such as ice cliff collapse, avalanche, bad weather, loose rocks, unstable snow or even just physical exhaustion which can happen at any time on my Expedition. There is no way of predicting all the hazards I may face. While NRE will take reasonable precautions to minimise the risks, there is no way NRE can guarantee my safety on this expedition 100%. Often areas of operation are remote with little or no medical support. In some remote areas self-rescue is the only option. My guide may need to begin first aid appropriate to the remoteness of the area and the nature of my ailment.

While NRE will take all reasonable precautions to maintain my safety I understand that I also am responsible to act in a responsible and safe manner that will not endanger myself or others in my party. By signing or ticking this document I certify that I have read and understood these risks and they are acceptable to me. I also agree not to seek compensation, financial or otherwise from any incident that might occur during or associated with your trip, from NRE, it's directors, employees or subcontractors. I understand NRE will not accept my participation on expedition if I do not have suitable or sufficient travel insurance to cover such events as illness, remote area evacuation, etc and I hereby state that I have taken out travel insurance to cover all of the above cover, bearing in the mind the remote area location to which this expedition is going. NRE is not responsible for any medical, hospital, doctor, rescue, evacuation, or associated transportation costs. We will where possible assist you with any emergency logistics in the event of problems.

I do/do not authorise No Roads Expeditions to use images obtained during the trek which depict myself and/or my children under the age of 18 for promotional purposes. (Please circle)

I HAVE READ, UNDERSTAND AND ACCEPT THE CANCELLATION/PAYMENT POLICY AND ABOVE LIABILITY RELEASE (please tick box to the left of this statement).
